DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 9 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The modules depicted in claim 9 can all be instructions of a data set or code. An apparatus cannot be simply software and therefore does not fall into a statutory category. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-3,5-6,11-12,14,16,26-37,39-42 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record is silent in teaching a display apparatus for displaying images, and annotating the images using a coupled audio input device with a corresponding reference location within an image on the display, and automatically creating an annotation object that associates the input audio signal, the location, and a visual notation. The visual notation is chosen by comparing the audio input of the annotation to a stored vocabulary, if a match is found, the notation is the chosen as a representative of the content of the audio input, along with all of the other limitation of the claim.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
